COACHES PEP TALK

Hi Members,

It's coming to an end, well at least for the Sunday games, one more hit out and then finals. Saturday boys and girls have a few more weeks so have fun.

Bad luck for the seniors who went down in the preliminary final and only lost it in the last few minutes, I hope mad Monday was not too big.

Presentation day is coming up on the 18th September. Great fun day for all families as Denise has already organised all the entertainment and rides and is always a great day. Alcohol is available on the day, so no glass bottles or byo, thanks. Last of the fees should be in by now if not PLEASE PAY NOW.

Home games on Sunday, so please come and help out as much as you can, as it's been a long season for those who stay all day to work.

First team must set up and last team must pack up. Please help and see you all there.

Yours in Rugby

Wally

CODE OF CONDUCT

The club adopts a ZERO tolerance on any abusive or offensive behaviour or language used towards game and club officials, players, parents and spectators. Please read and abide by the CODE of CONDUCT found in Appendix 2. of the Club Handbook. The Club Handbook is available on the Club Website.under Club Documents. A copy is also available at the Canteen.

Be WARNED: “Failure to abide by the code could result in the cancellation of your membership”.“Ignorance is not an Excuse”

This code is designed:

- To maintain the element of enjoyment and satisfaction in Junior Rugby.
- To make adults aware that young people play to satisfy themselves and not necessarily to satisfy adults or members of their own peer group.
- To improve the physical fitness of youth by making it attractive, safe and enjoyable for all young people.
- To constantly remind Administrators, Coaches, Referees, and Parents, that Rugby must be administered, taught and provided, for the good of those young people who wish to play the game.

PARENT’S CODE

- Do not force an unwilling youngster to participate in Rugby.
- Remember, young people are involved in Rugby for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage your child to always play by the laws.
- Teach young people that honest effort is as important as victory so the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
- Turn defeat into victory by helping young people work towards skill improvement and good sportsmanship. Never ridicule or yell at your child for making a mistake or losing a game. Remember that young people learn best by example. Applaud good play by your team and by members of the opposing team.
- Do not publicly question the referee's judgement and never his/her honesty.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from Junior Rugby.
- Recognise the value and importance of volunteer coaches, managers and referees. They give of their time and resources to provide recreational activities for your children.
- Do not approach a referee/touch judge at any stage during or immediately after a game.

The QJRU Management Committee and BJRU Competition Committee ALSO have the power to cite Players, Coaches, and/or Spectators for behaviour that may bring the game of Rugby into disrepute.
